DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

THURSDAY EVE., MARCH 16, 1882.

The good man while he skins around
To get the loaves and fishes,
His better-half should know, at least,
How to wash the dishes.
But now, alas, the girls don't know,
A blanket from a bed-tick
Because their present training is Too utterly aesthetic.

The river is falling.

Mr. JOHN P. NORVELL is a candidate for county Judge of Nicholas.

PLEASE bear in mind the tempeance lecture at the court house this evening, by Capt. R. S. Chevis, of Louisville.

ROBERT BLAKE, son of Elias Blake, living near Myer's Station, was seriously hurt by a log rolling over his body. One arm was broken and he was seriously injured internally.

ONE of the new designs in Easter cards at Phister's, is a small round pillow of swan's down, on which are three eggs. Around all is a border of silk fringe. It is a very beautiful design.

THE Flemingsburg Democrat says: I. W. Hilligoss sold his farm of 110 acres last week to Mr. Hawley, of Mason. The price paid was $5,000 cash. Mr. Hilligoss will move to Jackson County, Mo.

THE magistrates composing the court of claims have been called to meet the first Monday in April, for the purpose of directing the selection and purchase of ground for a new jail building.

CONGREGATIONS at the Presbyterian church are increasing in size and interest. Rev. E. O. Guerrant is in the city and will preach to-night, at 7 1/2 o'clock. All are invited to attend these meetings.

THE funeral of Miss Mildred Ryan, who died at Richmond, Va., yesterday, will take place to-morrow morning at ten o'clock, from the residence of Prof. W. W. Richeson, in Chester, afterservices by the Rev. S. B. Alderson, of the Presbyterian church. The remains will reach Maysville this evening.

THE Gallipolis (Ohio) Bulletin in its account of the disaster to the steamer Sydney thus kindly refers to the services rendered to the sufferers by Mr. Walter B. Phister of this city: All speak in words of greatest praise of Mr. Walter B. Phister, of Maysville, a passenger on the boat, who stayed with the wounded, rendering great assistance to black and white till all were cared for.

SAYS the Flemingsburg Democrat: Mr. Henry, the man from Bracken county who bought the farm of James P. Drenan a few weeks ago, came up last week to take possession. He started a plow, and the soil turning up reddish (instead of black, as in his county) he thought he had a bad bargain and gave Mr. Drenan $300 to let him off. It is hardly necessary to say that Mr. Drenan took him up on his proposition, for the farm was worth every cent if not more than what he paid for it.

THE principal creditors of J. R. Pugh, of Vanceburg, whose failure we announced in a former issue of this paper are Towell & McFarland, of Portsmouth; Owens & Barkley, of this city; McAlpin, Polk & Co., of Cincinnati; Wm. Glenn & Co., Cincinnati; Mosby & Hudson, Cincinnati, and Thomas E. Tynes, of Lewis county. The other creditors who hold small claims are about seventy in number. None of Mr. Pugh's debts are large enough to seriously hurt any of the firms who hold them, and it is believed that with proper management of the assets, the debts will be adjusted to the satisfaction all persons concerned.

STEAMER ETNA DESTROYED.

Explodes Her Boilers, Killing a Fireman and Seriously Injuring Others.

Yesterday morning about three o'clock the steamer Etna, while in the Kanawha River three miles above Point Pleasant, W. Va., exploded her boiler, instantly killing Dunk Anderson, the colored fireman, and seriously injuring several others, among the number Capt. Henderson, the pilot. To add to the horror the boat caught fire and was totally destroyed. The Etna was built at Cincinnati in 1873 and belonged to what is known as the Red Line. Her dimensions were 24x145 feet. She was peculiarly built, her boilers being immediately forward and under the cabin. The boilers were three in number. The engine cylinders were fifteen inches in diameter with five-foot stroke. The Etna, until a year ago, was used for towing iron ore between St. Louis and Ashland, Ky. While in this trade she was sunk twice, once at Ripley, O., by the ice and again in January last in the canal at Louisville. The boat was insured for $8,000, but as the policy of insurance did not provide against explosions, she will prove a total loss to her owners.

By Telegraph.

GALLIPOLIS, O., March 16th, 1882.—Engineer Cox, of this city, was asleep at the time of the explosion, and was blown into the river and narrowly escaped drowning. He was seriously shocked and burned. Capt. George, the owner of the boat, was on board with his wife. The latter was considerably bruised and burned, but, it is thought, not fatally. Capt. Henderson was found near the boiler terribly scalded and cut. In twenty minutes after the explosion the boat was entirely destroyed and her hull out of sight in ten feet of water. It is supposed that all three of the boilers exploded.

Muldoon Pic-Nic.

One of the most amusing and thoroughly enjoyable entertainments ever given in Maysville, will be presented at the opera house, on Tuesday evening, the 21st inst. by Hyde & Behman's Muldoon Pic-Nic Troupe. The company has appeared in all the large cities to crowded houses and has everywhere received the highest press commendation. The entertainment, we have no hesitation in saying, will be first class in every respect. The party is now in Louisville and will come here immediately after the conclusion of their engagement there. The Louisville Commercial says:

The season at the Buckingham Theatre reaches its highest points of success when the Hyde & Behman companies pay their visits. Their attractions never fail to draw well, and the company now playing an engagement has proved most popular in the professions, traveling or stationary. Last evening the performance opened with an act by the sketch artists, Henshaw and Ten Broeck, in which the difficulties of interviewing an actress are faithfully depicted. The business by McCarty and Monroe, entitled "Croghan's Chinese Laundry," followed next and showed Mr. Charles McCarty quite an apt in his Mongolian caricature, while the double part of Mr. and Mrs. Croghan, as given by Mr. George Monroe, was extremely laughable. Little Pearl, the infantile danseuse, was received with repeated encores. Messrs. Niles and Evans, who are by this time as well known in the city as though they were permanently located here, sustained their good name achieved on former visits. Their musical parodies were cleverly rendered, and the impersonations of the London swells were capital, though not founded on truth at all.

It was as plain as a fact can be, however, that Harry Kernell was the card of the entire party. He is one of the precious few performers on the variety stage who are worthy the title of comedian, and he is an Irish comedian in the strictest sense. Bryant and Hoey gave a soiree of instrumental music, alike surprising and enjoyable. Mr. Bryant is a cornetist of no mean accomplishments, and last summer he proved a popular counter-attraction to the great Levy at Coney Island. Hyde & Behman's characteristic farce, in two acts, called "Muldoon's Pic-Nic," closed the programme.

SAM McCANN, of Augusta, was run over by a wagon on the Dover road near that place on Tuesday evening, and was killed instantly.

Rev. H. D. Rice has returned from the city. He heard the young preacher Harrison, while there.

A. T. Botts has also returned bringing a large stock of goods.

B. R. Wilson had his left thumb badly damaged yesterday while at his usual work. He carries it around very carefully.

Sometime ago the members of our Sunday School made a quilt like unto Joseph's coat—of many colors. Every person desiring their names put on the quilt could do so by paying their money. It was the intention to put the quilt up and sell it at auction, but having realized over thirty dollars already, they concluded to give it away, and therefore made Mrs. H. D. Rice a present of it. It is a very beautiful quilt, and, as it has so many of her friends' names upon it, she values it very highly.

The A. K. B's supper on Tuesday night passed off very pleasantly. As we were not "among the chosen" we cannot give the particulars. Case Bradford can tell you all about it; ask him.

A. D. Poor has moved into his own house recently purchased on what the boys call Mount Misery.

Cal Grenager has moved in the Geo. Sibbald house on Third street.

A Tomlin has moved from the country into the northern part of the town.

"Our Boy" has learned to walk, and you, Mr. Editor, know probably from experience how proudly we feel. He has been quite poorly for a few days, but has now fully recovered.

Mrs. Ridgeway has gone to the city to visit her relatives and to lay in a supply of household furniture.

Rev. H. D. Rice and Rev. Sanders will exchange pulpits next Sunday evening.

We understand our new hotel will have a bar-room attached. We are sorry to hear of more bar-rooms; we have already too many.

PILES! PILES! PILES!

A Sure Cure Found at Last—No One Need Suffer!

A sure cure for blind, bleeding, itching and ulcerated piles has been discovered by Dr. William (an Indian remedy), called Dr. Williams' Indian Ointment. A single box has cured the worst chronic cases of twenty-five or thirty years standing. No one need suffer five minutes after applying this wonderful soothing medicine. Lotions, instruments and electrics do more harm than good. Williams' Ointment absorbs the tumors, allays the intense itching, (particularly at night after getting warm in bed,) acts as a poultice, gives instant and painless relief, and is prepared only for piles, itching of the private parts, and nothing else.

Read what the Hon. J. M. Coffinberry, of Cleveland, says about Dr. Williams' Pile Ointment: I have used scores of pile cures, and it affords me pleasure to say that I have never found anything which gave me such immediate and permanent relief as Dr. Williams' Indian Ointment.

Dr. Frazier's Root Bitters.

Frazier's Root Bitters are not a drug-shop whisky beverage, but are strictly medicinal in every sense. They act strongly upon the liver and kidneys, keep the bowels open and regular, make the weak strong, heal the lungs, build up the nerves and cleanse the blood and system of every impurity.

For dizziness, rush of blood to the head tending to apoplexy, dyspepsia, fever and ague, dropsy, pimples and blotches, scrofulous humors and sores, tetter, ring worm, white swelling, erysipelas, sore eyes and for young men suffering from weakness or debility caused from imprudence, and to females in delicate health, Frazier's Root Bitters are especially recommended.

Dr. Frazier: I have used two bottles of your Root Bitters for dyspepsia, dizziness, weakness and kidney disease, and they did me more good than the doctors and all the medicine I ever used. From the first dose I took I began to mend, and I am now in perfect health, and feel as well as I ever did. I consider your medicine one of the greatest blessings.
